

PRAYERS

1 John 5:14

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

We know Lord that you intercede for us through Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit so we bring before you the concerns of our hearts as we intercede for one another.

For our community which lives in the splendour of fall colours. Help us to see and praise you for this.

For the provinces as the leaders make decisions about rules around Covid 19 as numbers increase again.

For the doctors, nurses and health care workers who are working difficult, long shifts. May the peak have been reached and may numbers now decline.

For those who have Covid and those who are worried that they might have it. Be with them. We thank you for my cousin's grandson, David, who has now recovered from this virus.

For those celebrating birthdays this week. Rial Gau who is turning 14 and Samya Mawau who is turning 5.

For those facing cancer treatment:

For Grayson who is doing better and started back to school.

For Charlotte and her family as they attempt to find housing in London so the family can be together.

For Randy that he is enjoying the beautiful fall weather.

For John's friend's wife - she is now on daily oral chemo.

For Peter Scoffield's sister-in-law who has cancer.

For Susan and Annetta's cousin Hazel who is facing cancer treatments in London.

for Beth St. Onge's father-in-law Henry whose skin cancer has returned.

For the Presbytery of Algoma North Bay:

For Rev. Dan Reeves as he recuperates from minor surgery.

For Rev. Arlene Hartford as she recuperates from a heart attack.

For those recuperating from surgery:

For Jennie Lillie for her recuperation from hip surgery.

For Al Carscadden for his recuperation from carpal tunnel surgery.

For my friend, Gord Walford whose son is waiting for a heart transplant and his granddaughter is recuperating from gallbladder surgery.

For the family of Terry Dwyer as they grieve his passing this last week. Be with his sister Lee Anne Hillstrom as she goes with Susan and Penny to Toronto for heart surgery on Monday. May their travels to Toronto and back be uneventful and may the surgery be successful.

For others:

For my brother and family as they mourn the loss of his father-in-law.

For Joan Hall as she is having difficulty with her legs and knees.

For Maahi who is making big changes in her life.

For Nicolene who hopes to find a solution for her hip pain so she can walk better.

For Kristen who is living with a brain aneurysm.

For Everet who is struggling with his mental health.

For Chloe who is still recovering from injuries from an accident last summer.

For Frank and Lina (from the Bargan Box) as Frank recovers from a stroke.

For Roger Fremlin as he begins his move to Pathways.

Lord, hear our prayers for these people.

Amen
